It keeps going!

The Lord is good!

For 25 years our labors in Costa Rica bore fruit very slowly. And then about five years ago, not only our churches began to grow, but pastors and leaders from other denominations became interested in the biblical doctrines of God's sovereign grace, and Scripture's full authority. I admit that I was skeptical. "It won't continue" I said. But I was wrong.

The photo above is of our last Reformed leaders' meeting. We used to be 10 people - sometimes less! At this meeting there were 40 enthusiastic pastors and leaders. The topic? I was asked to present John Calvin's perspective on the "Sufficiency of Scripture". Afterwards one pastor vehemently said that more study on topics like this was urgent.

So I was wrong. And I'm happy to admit it! There is a reformation going on, by God's sovereign grace - like it has always been.

Pastor Marvin (pictured below) was heavy into the "apostles and prophets" movement, with a church of 500 members. He has renounced his former theology, and asks for prayer now as he seeks to wisely reform his church. Please pray!
